Exhibit Description & Rules

Please respond to the theme “Lewisville: The Town I Love” as an artist in Lewisville.

This show is open to all youth, 18 and under who live, go to school, attend classes, or visit places in the Town of Lewisville.

Ideas & Suggestions

You can use any medium (material), be expressive, turn in your best work, and have fun!

- Express yourself and reflect on who you are.
- Observe something in Lewisville including your school, sports team, scouts, dance, neighborhood, favorite local animal, and more.
- Medium suggestions include Watercolor, Acrylic paint, Colored Pencil, Collage, Ceramics, Photography, and more.

How to Submit Your Art

Submit your art (only one piece) to your art teacher by Wednesday, May 1, 2024 if you attend: Lewisville Elementary (Ms. Swift), Lewisville Middle (Mrs. Miller), Reagan (Mrs. Willard), West Forsyth (Mrs. Betson), or Vienna Elementary (Ms. Warlick). Art should be ready to be exhibited. If not framed, paintings and drawings should be mounted on poster board.

If you do not attend these schools or are homeschooled and/or have a connection with Lewisville, bring your art to the Mary Alice Warren Community Center on Monday, May 6, 2024 between 4:00-6:00 p.m. The exhibit and reception will be Wednesday, May 8, 2024 from 4:30-7:00 p.m.

In various categories, 1st, 2nd & 3rd place winners will be announced that evening and the artwork will be on exhibit at the Mary Alice Warren Community Center until Wednesday, May 22, 2024.

If you have questions, please contact us at publicart@lewisvillenc.net.
