Solar Energy at the Mary Alice Warren Community Center

The Town of Lewisville took significant steps toward achieving its 2030 sustainability goals in April with the installation of a 51kW solar energy array at the Mary Alice Warren Community Center. The 108 solar panels installed on the rear roof of the center will provide approximately 96% of the building's energy usage and offset an estimated 1.4 million pounds of carbon emissions over the next three decades.

The cost of the $122,000 system will be offset with approximately $70,000 in federal tax credits and rebates from Duke Energy. During the next 30 years, the system is projected to save the town $225,000 in electricity bills.

From Your Mayor Good Start Early

Mike Horn

The folks who know about this kind of stuff say that we start learning from our very first moments of life, and that through the age of seven is when we form the foundation for how we communicate and interact with the world around us.

I was very fortunate during this important phase of life to have the parents I did. My dad was a big man of few words but of strong character, honesty and determination. My mother was kind, very patient and frankly brilliant, as I would learn with age.

What I learned from them is a big part of what makes me who I am and how I've tried to live my life. Although, I could have used a lot more of my mom's brilliance.

It seems logical to me then, that if you closely observe an individual's behavior and actions, you can glean some insight into their first years of life.

I see this when I look at so many of our residents who participate on our town's boards and committees. Those who volunteer and lead our community organizations. And those in our town who demonstrate daily their civility, compassion and concern for others.

I can imagine your parents were much like mine. And more importantly, how you have nurtured your children, so many of whom I've met, to embrace the good qualities you learned at a young age. I believe that this capacity for "goodness" is inherent to all of humankind. Yes, I know there are bad people in this world, maybe because of their experiences during their first impressionable years.

However, I also believe that we have an opportunity to reshape an individual's behavior at any age. I've seen the impact that so many of you have had on our community. Through your daily practice of kindness, understanding and civil leadership, we have made each other better.

So, I guess my point is that our nurturing of the good in others can occur at any stage of life. As long as we continue to demonstrate the qualities that make us all better people and our community a better place.

As always, I welcome your thoughts and comments.

Lewisville Fire Department Firefighter Recognition

Two members of the Lewisville Fire Department (LFD) recently received special recognition for their professional accomplishments.

Assistant Chief David Miller was named Firefighter of the Year by the Rotary Club of Western Forsyth. David Miller has been in the fire service for 36 years, including stints at Winston-Salem Fire Department where he retired as a Captain and Lewisville Fire Department where he currently serves as Assistant Chief. Chief Darin Needham stated that "Assistant Chief David Miller is a great person, and a great firefighter. He is kind, selfless, and always there when you need him. Our community and our department are truly blessed by David's presence and all that he does for us."

Captain Jesse Levy is a member of the LFD Career Staff, and he was awarded the Forsyth County Fire & Rescue Association's Chris Hooper Instructor of the Year award. Jesse Levy has a wide range of experience in the fire service, and he gives back to the profession in many ways, including his work training new recruits and colleagues. Chief Needham noted "Captain Jesse Levy has been an integral part of many fire departments through both volunteer and career service. His role as an instructor reaches far beyond our department and Town. Jesse's commitment to teaching firefighter certification will impact many communities across the state for decades to come!"

We offer our congratulations to these two respected professionals as well as our gratitude for their diligent service and hard work in protecting the residents here in Lewisville!

Notes from your

Environmental Conservation and Sustainability Committee

Thanks to all who attended the first Lewisville Earth Day last weekend! We hope you enjoyed the exhibits and vendors and learned a bit about sustainability to incorporate into everyday life. Especially thanks to those of you who brought items to the Special Recycling event! Every item repurposed or recycled reduces trash. Keep saving for Terracycle and be ready for our next Special Recycling – the last Saturday in October.

And remember, these ECSC events are not the only way to recycle. On any trip to the grocery store you can put plastic bags and film into the appropriate bin out front. As long as they're marked with a 2 or 4 in a triangle or have the "store drop-off" label, they're recyclable. Bags that aren't can be reused for refrigerating fruits or leftovers instead of buying new plastic. Glass jars can be reused in the same way. Different groceries collect different items. Check your favorite store's bins, because some recycle egg cartons or the #1 – 5 non-small neck plastics you bring to our events. That's where we take what we collect. By making weekly drop-offs a habit, you'll have less clutter in your home while doing environmental good.

As the weather warms, enjoy the outdoors while preparing for the coming heat of summer. Check the weather stripping on all of your doors and windows. We hope the LED bulb you took home from Lewisville Earth Day is brightening your world while using less energy.

Celebrate Earth Day Every Day!

Spring Garden Greetings to All of You from the Lewisville Beautification Committee!

From April 1 through most of July, members of the Lewisville Beautification Committee will be recognizing especially beautiful gardens and yards in Lewisville town limits with the Yard of the Week sign. If you see a special yard that you would like to nominate for the award, please send an email to Town Clerk Dora Moore (townclerk@lewisvillenc.net) with the name and address of the property owner, and an LBC member will drive by to check it out. The award sign is moved every 2 weeks to another worthy yard, usually in a different area of the Town. So, sharpen your shovels and help beautify Lewisville!

From the Desk of JON HANNA – PUBLIC WORKS

As new Public Works Director, I've had the opportunity over the last couple months to learn a lot and get to know a bunch of great people. Lewisville is vibrant with exciting new projects and expertly guided by a hardworking staff. I consider myself extremely fortunate to be here working with them and for you.

I hope to make this column a regular addition to the newsletter as it will allow me to update you on what the Public Works Department is up to, what may be coming as far as new projects are concerned, and generally keep you informed of the thinking or planning behind some of the things you see going on around town. I'll also try to provide helpful tips or point out improvements we could make regarding how we manage our shared spaces and resources.

For example, this is the time of year many of us are applying fertilizers and pre-emergents to the lawn. Please make sure this material is thoroughly cleaned up from the storm sewers and all paved surfaces. As counterintuitive as it seems, fertilizer is a major pollutant once it hits our waterways. The same goes for leaves and grass clippings. They're unsightly in the streets and along the curbs, but more importantly, these become pollutants once they leave the site in stormwater. In my opinion, a homeowner's best friend is a good mulching mower. Close the deck, keep the blades sharp, and mulch it all in – leaves, grass, garden gnomes – all of it. If it's returned to the soil, it doesn't become a waste product to be disposed of.

Also, you may notice some areas of Jack Warren Park that aren't being mowed as often as they have before. These sites are pieces of our larger mitigation plan for Canada Geese. In the last couple years, the geese have created a sanitation problem in several areas, especially around the new community center. By allowing the large, open fields to grow a little higher, we hope to offer less attractive feeding sites and therefore reduce the numbers of landing geese.

Please feel free to contact me at publicworks@lewisvillenc.net if you have questions about any of these or other subjects, and I look forward to serving Lewisville.
